

FIRE DESTROYS NEWARK HOUSE; HAY DAMAGED

A fire which may have been caused by faulty wiring last Sunday evening completely destroyed a house in Newark. The house, a two-family dwelling, is the property of Leon Orcutt of Niles.

According to Della Schuff, one of the occupants of the house, no one was at home at the time and the fire had a good chance to get started before the Newark fire department could be summoned. Even the nearest neighbors, the Hamilton family, were in San Jose for the day.

Nearly all furnishings in the house, which had recently been redecorated, were lost. Orcutt, who resides in Niles, has been out of town on a vacation for the past week.

Less than six hours after fire destroyed the house in Newark, a second fire of undetermined origin threatened to destroy a huge stack of hay at the Rogers' Dairy in Irvington.

Mrs. Rogers, wife the dairyman, Anthony Rogers, noticed flames shortly before midnight and summoned the Irvington fire department, which extinguished the fire before extensive damage could be done.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB TALKS OF HOUSING

At a meeting presided over by Vice-President Krueger, the Irvington Improvement Club on Tuesday evening, July 9, discussed at least two topics of importance.

To begin with, Stevenson Fitzhugh gave a report on plans for the building of about 59 new homes on the property adjoining Frank Delgado's filling station. In the face of disbandment of OPA price controls, each house would cost in the neighborhood of $7,000, it was revealed.

As a follow-up, Mr. Knox, designer and builder of the completed houses, is to attend the next regular meeting of the improvement club and give full details.

Secondly, a motion was made and carried to have a written letter addressed to the post office inspector in regard to securing a larger post office building for Irvington.

Finally, in regard to cleaning the weeds out of the local cemetery, R. A. Griffin and Lee Williams were appointed to make arrangements for the task.

BOOTH CANNERY WILL HIRE 600

With bumper crops of apricots, then peaches, and later tomatoes to put into cans, the F. E. Booth Company plant in Centerville began this year's operations last Monday.

Reaching full production next week, the cannery will employ 600 persons, according to Superintendent Morris O'Brien. This employment figure will represent a 50 per cent increase over last year.

Enlargement and improvement of the cannery during the past few months have measurably increased the capacity of the plant.

ALVARADO GIRLS PLAN SOCIAL CLUB

From Emily Dominguez comes word that through the efforts of herself and a group of Alvarado girls, a club is in the process of being organized for the express purpose of benefiting Mexican girls in that town.

Acting as temporary spokesman for the group, Miss Dominguez said that the club—as yet unnamed—would sponsor all types of social activities, such as dances, theater parties, etc.; but even more important than that, plans are being considered for the creation of a fund from which money could be borrowed by members.

Election of officers for the club will take place at a meeting to be held at the Dominguez home within the next week or so.

SOFTBALL TEAMS ARE AT IT AGAIN

After a week's lay-off, the teams of the Washington Township Softball Association got going again on Monday of this week with two hard fought contests between Klein's and Wedgewood, which Klein's won by a score of 4 to 0; and the second game between Mission Firemen and Westvaco which the smoke-eaters copped by the count of 3 to 2.

Under the P.G.&E.-made sunshine on Tuesday eventide, the Central Chevy fender denters met head-on in a 1 to 1 tie with the Native Sons. Frick's and Kraftile ended up with a 3 to 2 victory going into the pocket of the plumb-ers.

ALVARADO, CENTERVILLE SHOW GAINS

MISSION LOSES IN SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Rural school population in Alameda county continued to increase and the city school districts lost slightly during the past year, according to figures on average daily attendance released this week by Vaughn D. Seidel. City schools dropped 1164 in attendance and suburban schools gained 883, leaving a net loss for the county. Total attendance for the present school year is 78,692 as compared with a total of 78,973 for last year.

Attendance in the rural elementary schools increased more than seven per cent from 8,496 in 1944-45 to 9,123 in 1945-46. The 1945-46 total is eight per cent greater than the last pre-war year, 1940-41. Of the thirty elementary districts, 18 showed gains, 11 lost on one, Stony Brook, remained unchanged at five pupils in average daily attendance. The greatest gain was by San Lorenzo elementary district. Its growth accounted for 400 of the net 627 increase. Other significant gains were made at Alvarado with 35, Castro Valley 51, Centerville 34, and Pleasanton 55. Decreases were small, the most important being 32 at Livermore elementary. Mission San Jose dropped 16, Palomares 13, and Valle Vista 12 in attendance.

The rural high schools, with a gain of 256 over 1944-45, have more than made up for a small decline during the war years. Figures for 1940-41, 1944-45 and 1945-46 are respectively: 2,882, 2,807 and 3,063. Hayward High school showed the greatest growth, from 1,682 to 1,835, an increase of 153, and Washington High school, Centerville, picked up 66 over the 1944-45 figure of 494. Emery High school went up 7, while slight declines were found at Amador Valley high school at Pleasanton and Livermore high school.

HAPPY ENDING FOR WAR BRIDE'S STORY

Twice during the past week the telephone in the Espinoza house rang loudly and the operator announced that long distance was calling.

And when she said long distance she didn't mean Hayward or Milpitas; she meant nothing less than New York!

The caller, if you haven't already guessed, was Staff Sergeant Salvador Espinoza, and the main reason for his calling was his desire to converse with his wife, Sylvia Espinoza, who is now living with her husband's parents in Irvington.

The last time Sergeant Espinoza saw his bride was the day she sailed from Leghorn, Italy, for America.

Although the new Mrs. Espinoza is rapidly learning the language of her adopted country, the phone conversation was carried on mostly in Italian. The surprising thing about that, however, is that Espinoza, who is not Italian, should have mastered the language so well. According to his family, when he joined the Army Air Forces three years ago, he knew nothing about that language.

But then the sergeant had a very good incentive to learn.

Anyway, the important thing about the whole story is not the phone calls or the language involved; what is important is that by next Monday Staff Sergeant Espinoza and his wife will be together again. According to his family, the sergeant is returning to California this week. Later he will receive his discharge from Camp Beale.

To further that belief, the Druids will present a dinner at Anderson Hall in Centerville at 8 o'clock, July 15. This affair is being held for all Druids and their friends.

Arrangements are now being made by Joe Silva, noble arch; Mrs. Dallas Paul, arch Druidess, and Jack Holland, publicity chairman, to make this a big event. Besides other types of entertainment, there are to be motion pictures shown.

TOYON BRANCH LUNCHEONS IN GORMAN GARDENS

The grounds of the Gorman home in Niles provided an ideal setting for the picnic pot-luck lunch held by members of the Toyon Branch of the Children's Hospital last Monday.

The group gathered at the picnic tables around the barbecue pit and, after lunch, discussed plans for the sale of the recently-completed doll house, which was built and donated to Toyon by Mrs. Edna Overacker.

ALVARADO FARM HOME PLANS ANNUAL PICNIC

The Alvarado Farm Home Center met recently at the home of Mrs. Mary G. Rodriguez, with 19 members present.

Following refreshments, plans for the annual picnic, to be held in Memorial Park in Hayward, were discussed. Mrs. Anna A. Rose is chairman of the affair.

Hospital, Dumbarton Toll to Be Discussed With State Legislators

Two of the most immediately vital matters now holding the interest of Washington Township residents will be brought to the attention of state legislators representing this area when State Senator Arthur Breed and Assemblyman Francis Dunn will meet with the Washington Township Planning Committee next Tuesday. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock in the evening in the cafeteria

NILES YOUTH TELLS OF ATOMIC TEST

On board the destroyer USS Barton, Ensign J. M. Ferranti of Niles writes of his experiences during the historic atomic bomb test at Bikini:

"The first test is over, and everything is quiet here in the lagoon. We assisted in the operations only ten miles from the center of the explosion of the bomb. From our vantage point, it looked like a giant mushroom rising about 50 feet in a multitude of colors. We felt the explosion only a little—but could feel a wave of intense heat."

"On board the USS Barton were many scientists, and we were the first to enter the danger area—where we stayed for one hour and 20 minutes—to test the radio activity and make it safe for the rest to get in and check the damage."

"Hope to tell you more after the next experiment, for which we are getting ready. Will have plenty to tell when we get back."

Also on Sunday afternoon there will be an auction and a band concert.

Those in charge of the celebration are M. V. Nunes, chairman; F. C. Lemos, vice-chairman; M. DeSalles, secretary; J. M. Guardanopoli, treasurer; and Joe Faria, marshal.

NEWARK COUPLE MARRIED SUNDAY

Gowned in the traditional white, the former Waunita Le Count, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Le Count of Newark, last Sunday became the bride of Mr. Luther Hudson, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howell Hudson, also of Newark.

The bride was given away by her father and the best man was Carl Pierce of Newark. Wanda May Le Count, twin sister of the bride, acted as maid-of-honor.

For a bouquet, the bride carried white gardenias and white sweet peas, while the bouquet of the maid-of-honor was of blue delphiniums and pink sweet peas.

Miss Ruthie Cotton of Newark played the church organ and two solos, "I'm Glad I Waited for You" and "Because," were sung by Betty Brandt of Centerville.

Following the ceremony, a wedding reception for the young couple was given at the Le Count family home, 2270 Dairy avenue.

The bride and groom now are honeymooning in Santa Cruz, and upon their return will take up residence in a new home recently purchased by Hudson in Newark.

CENTRAL CHEVROLET HAS NEW BALL MANAGER

The Central Chevrolet Softball team has a new manager. Following the resignation of Arthur Belshaw, whose business was demanding too much of his time, the managership of the team was taken over by Raymond Bettencourt. Art is wishing his successor "lots of luck."

W. M. Oakey, manager of the Alvarado branch of the Central Bank in Alvarado, and his family are spending two weeks' vacation in the Santa Cruz mountains.

room of Washington Union High school, according to Secretary Edward E. Enos.

Primary issue to be considered will be the revision of state law to enable the formation of a hospital district in the township. At present, a technicality in the law excludes any area of Alameda county from forming such a district.

The Newark Chamber of Commerce proposal to make Dumbarton Bridge toll-free will also be considered and the state legislators representing this area will be advised of the importance of this to the township.

BADLY NEEDED

Urgency of need for a local general hospital, according to Chairman L. R. Batman of the planning committee, has been recognized by a number of township organizations and local doctors. That a hospital should be a public, tax-supported institution is generally conceded.

Various alternate means of establishing a hospital have been considered and discarded, leaving the fact that, unless state law can be changed to allow formation of a hospital district, which would operate in similar fashion to a sanitary district or a school district, Washington Township cannot have adequate hospital facilities. Recognition of the situation led planning committee heads to ask Assemblyman Dunn and Senator Breed to meet with the committee.

AID ASKED

Aid of the legislators is also needed to assist in inducing the State Highway Commission and the California Toll Bridge Authority to acquire Dumbarton Bridge and operate it on a toll-free basis, according to President Richard Jolly of the Newark Chamber of Commerce and a member of the planning committee.

The Alameda County Board of Supervisors, Jolly states, has accepted the plan of a toll-free bridge and has recommended it to the state. However, wider expression of the need is required; hence the interest of Breed and Dunn is being sought.

All township civic and service organizations are asked to send representatives to Tuesday's meeting, which also is open to anyone interested.

Thinking Things Over...

By VIVIAN BATMAN

Frantic mothers who are tearing their hair during these vacation days, and uttering wails of "If I could ONLY send the children off to a summer camp" will take heart from this little tale of woe of a Niles mother, and realize that summer camps do NOT end all vacation worries.

A little seven-year-old boy who—to save him future embarrassment—will remain anonymous—went off to summer camp last week. Everything about the camp delighted him. He could swim in the lake. He could play with lots of other little boys of his age. He could eat. He could look at comic books. And—he could play with his shining new toy cap pistol which his mother had bought him as a "bon voyage" present.

So everything looked rosy. Or did it?

Several days later, the small boy's mother answered the phone to be greeted by a high tenor voice sobbing, "Mama, come and get me. I wanna go home!" More and MORE sobs.

Then: "Mama, I fell in the lake, 'n my clothes are all wet, 'n my cap pistol's busted, 'n the kids have taken away all my caps. I wanna go HOME!" (Sob, sob.)

Then the F.M. (frantic mother) heard a female voice at the other end of the wire, cutting in with "Mrs. —, this is entirely unheard of. This is the first time that any child his age has called long distance. I just don't know what to make of it. It's unheard of! But rest assured that we will soon have him under control. The counsellor is going to talk to him right away. There's really nothing to worry about."

The small boy then cuts in, with diminishing sobs, "Well, g'bye, Mom. Send me another cap pistol, willya?"

TAKE YOUR CHOICE!

Special to you bachelors in Niles (or vicinity) who complain of the dearth of marriageable young women:

The following classified ad appeared in a current magazine:

"DULL, CONVENTIONALLY-minded, bourgeois redhead wonders if there are any men in Detroit who will buy her ice cream cones with no strings attached."

How about a trip to Detroit, boys? But, after all, men, why bother with "cherchez la femme?" I mean, why search for the eternal feminine? Instead, why not take advantage of THIS opportunity (in a classified in the same magazine): "REAL ADVENTURE on this '36 Alden Sailing Ketch, going around the world. Sailing from Frisco early 1947. Be gone approximately 3 years. Consider 4 more crew members."

Sounds interesting, doesn't it? (Name of magazine on request). And probably much cheaper than supporting a wife — especially a redhead!

Vacationing In Mid-west

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott and family of Centerville left Monday for Oklahoma. From Oklahoma Mrs. Scott will travel to Indiana, her former home, to visit relatives. She will then return to Oklahoma and join her family, who will return to Centerville in about six weeks.

OPEN HOUSE FOR 'FREEZALL' PLANT

Technicolor sound pictures, showing all the different steps in the processing of food for frozen locker storage, will be shown without charge this Sunday (July 14) at the new Freezall Locker Service, Main street, Niles, which will hold "open house" for visitors all day Sunday. The plant, though its exterior is not completed, will be opened and ready for patrons next week.

All the equipment has been installed, and the machinery is ready for operation. On Sunday, visitors will be shown just how the machinery and equipment operates. One of the unique features of the plant is the installation of germicidal lamps, which kill the bacteria that enter, even the bacteria on the clothing of the patrons.

Two Alvarado couples, Mr. and Mrs. John Machado and Mr. and Mrs. John Costa, are leaving Sunday for a vacation in Santa Cruz.

Mrs. Flores of Alvarado is attending the S.P.R.S.I. convention in Oakland this week.

Let's Keep Our Heads

By this time we have seen that in spite of some price rises which have occurred since the first of the month, the demise of OPA need not be a national calamity.

It can, on the other hand, prove a blessing to the country if the people of America will keep their heads about them. Everybody agreed that OPA had to go some day but it was just a question of timing. The complete removal of ceilings came sooner and more suddenly than most of us would have wished, but business men and their customers can create far more effective price control, if they will, than could ever be provided by any government agency.

Unless and until the OPA is revived the citizens of the United States will walk without the economic crutch which they have leaned on so heavily during the past four years. If they try they can get along without it. But all must try. Sellers must keep their prices at reasonable levels. Buyers must refuse to bid up scarce goods. Labor leaders must not inaugurate a new wave of strikes for still higher wages.

In short, everyone should keep cool and work harder than ever before because common sense, combined with high production, will prevent serious inflation. Some legislation covering rents should be enacted, but it is inevitable that a reasonable increase must be allowed to help offset the rising real estate taxes and the higher property maintenance costs.

The American people have a great opportunity now to prove to themselves that they can live and thrive without instructions from Washington as to what they are to do and how much they are to pay for everything they buy. If they make proper use of this opportunity they'll be happier and the Nation will be stronger because of it.

Free Press and a Free World

Speaking at the recent convention of the National Editorial Association at Estes Park, Colorado, Palmer Hoyt, editor and publisher of The Denver Post, declared his belief that world freedom of the news is essential to avert a catastrophe for civilization.

What Mr. Hoyt and many others both in and out of the newspaper profession realize is that wars are largely built up on propaganda. Both the Nazis and the Japs demonstrated that. If the peoples of the world were permitted to know the truth about one another and were given the straight facts concerning events of international importance there would be much less danger of misunderstanding and friction.

But as desirable as it would be to have an uncensored flow of information throughout the world, the outlook for it is not at all bright. Real press freedom has not been achieved as yet in fascist countries such as Argentina and Spain, and there is little likelihood that Russia will draw back the "iron curtain" surrounding her own borders and the other countries she dominates.

The recent expulsion from the Balkans of an American newspaper correspondent who reported that Communists were using strong-arm methods to maintain political control, indicates that Russian censorship will continue. Dictatorships—fascist or communist—cannot tolerate a free press.

Despite this discouraging outlook, however, we Americans should continue our efforts toward the establishment of a worldwide free press, not only for the sake of other peoples but for our own good as well.

As long as these efforts are handled with discretion we have nothing to lose by them and it is possible that very much may be gained.

SUMMARY OF OPERATIONS IN NORTHWEST EUROPE

By General Dwight D. Eisenhower

Germany's armies in the west be decisively engaged and defeated America and England—the Western Allies—could not be sufficiently strong to undertake the assault against France until June 1944, but the broad tactical plans for the operation were completed and approved by the Combined Chiefs of Staff in August 1943, prior to my assumption of command of the European Theater in February 1944.

As part of our basic strategy, and in accordance with the task given to the Strategic Air Force under the Casablanca Directive in January 1943, the bombing of Germany, begun early in the war by the British Bomber Command, was intensified in May 1943 and continued with mounting strength to the end of the campaign. Neither the contemplated invasion of Europe nor the direct attack on the German industrial and economic system would be feasible until we had achieved supremacy over the German Air Force. This struggle for air supremacy, which had been going on throughout the war, was given added impetus by a new directive (known as POINTBLANK) in January 1943 which aimed at subjugating the enemy air force by the spring of 1944. In the event, German air might was thoroughly dominated by D-Day and we were free to apply the immense strength of the Allied air forces in the manner we wished and to launch the invasion confident that our plans could not be seriously upset by the German air force. In addition, air bombardment had disrupted the German communications system, immeasurably aiding our ground forces by impeding enemy movements.

Our main strategy in the conduct of the ground campaign was to land amphibious and airborne forces on the Normandy coast between Le Havre and the Cotentin Peninsula and, with the successful establishment of a beachhead with adequate ports, to drive along the lines of the Loire and the Seine Rivers into the heart of France, destroying the German strength and freeing France. We anticipated that the enemy would resist strongly on the line of the Seine and later on the Somme, but once our forces had broken through the relatively static lines of the beachhead at St. Lo and inflicted on him the heavy casualties in the Falaise pocket, his ability to resist in France was negligible. Thereafter our armies swept east and north in an unimpeded advance which brought them to the German frontier and the defenses of the Siegfried Line.

Rid Homes of Ants Says Scientist

While some ants are harmless, most of them carry filth, and may contribute to various illnesses when they come in contact with food, it was stated recently by Dr. Heber C. Donohoe, entomologist of the Peterman Laboratories, who recommended to the nation's housewives that their homes be kept free of all ants.

The best way to destroy ants calls for an insecticide in powder form. Place it in unbroken lines—about a half inch wide—across all avenues of entrance. If ants enter house through kitchen door, place line of powder next to sill and extend it from one side of door to the other (as pictured above). Make ants cross killing agent at some point as they enter house. That's all that's necessary to kill them.

To assure best results, choose an insecticide in powder form designed especially for ants, then follow above directions.

As Though You Didn't Know...

By Clinton Caldwell

Peter de Trant is scorched. You can't blame him. As you may or may not know, Pete owns "Colonel," a two-year-old saddle-bred stallion of which he is justly proud.

Several weeks ago Pete decided to show "Colonel" at the Alameda County Fair. Not that it was originally Pete's idea—but when the invitation came, Pete gladly accepted.

To show a horse at a fair is a lot of hard work; there are all sorts of preparations that must be made—paper work, as well as the more manual labor of readying the animal, arranging for transportation, and any number of other things. But Pete felt that it would be worth the trouble; after all, when you own a blooded horse a ribbon or two counts too.

Well, to make a bad story worse, the day came (last Sunday) and Pete and "Colonel" showed up at the fair. So did one (1) other owner. Total: two (2) owners with saddle-bred stallions. BUT, according to the rules and regulations, there can be no contest unless three or more animals of a certain class are entered.

So, as we said before, Peter de Trant is scorched.

Now, an apology. Miss Elizabeth A. Lowrie is the librarian at Irvington.

Mrs. Shuld is the lady who went to the button show with her. That's how come our readers arrived at the conclusion that we were losing our buttons.

And that's how we came by our first fan letter.

It seems to be the custom in certain other columns appearing in the daily newspapers to report witty sayings overheard in cafes, bars, etcetera. The weather hereabouts has been a little too warm for anybody to really open up with the wit, but at least we heard one that amused us. It was in a town-ship eatery: "What gets me, is how a cook living practically next door to two big salt factories can be so stingy with the stuff in his cooking."

All right, don't laugh. Maybe the heat's got us.

MONDAY LAST DAY FOR PROTESTING COUNTY TAXES

Supervisor Harry Bartell, chairman of the audit and finance committee, asks that publication be given to the fact that the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County is now sitting as the Board of Equalization and that the final day for filing objections to the assessments of the assessor of Alameda county is July 15, 1946.

This information is given for the reason that the exemptions voted by the people at the last general election and the increased number of Veterans' exemptions necessitate an increase in the assessments of Alameda county. In 1933, during the depression, a general decrease of approximately ten per cent was made by the assessor of Alameda county on all assessments in the county. A portion of this reduction was added to the assessments for the coming fiscal year to meet the increased cost of county government.

No correction can be made after July 15, 1946, unless a protest is filed with the Board of Supervisors on or before that date.

ALVARADO NINE TAKES EMERYVILLE

Behind the fast-ball pitching of J. Shestack, and some tight defensive playing by the entire team, Joe Jacinto's Alvarado Theater nine last Sunday defeated the Emeryville Veterans by a score of 5 to 3. The game was played at Alvarado.

Pitching for seven innings and allowing but four scattered hits, and striking out eight men, Shestack was replaced by Stewart, who finished the game.

A triple by Jess Jacinto in the third inning, and a double by Shestack, also helped to put the visitors behind the five ball.

Next Sunday the Alvaradoans meet the Caz Bar team from Oakland in what promises to be one of the toughest games on the local team's list.

BUT WE'LL WAIT FOR 'CATERPILLAR' DIESELS

"We farm 800 acres of alfalfa, beans, tomatoes, squash and cucumbers. The nature of our crops won't permit us to take a chance on just any kind of a tractor.

We've found the dependability and top performance we need in the past and present operations of our 'Caterpillar' track-type Tractors. That's why 'Caterpillar' Diesels have a future with us.

Our need for a new tractor is great and even though we might be able to get another make a little sooner, we'll wait for the new 'Caterpillar' Diesels."

Newlyweds Touring In the East

On a tour across the United States are honeymooners Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dutra. The former Ethel Furtado of Niles and the ex-Merchant Marineman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel S. Dutra of Centerville, were married in Las Vegas June 30, and left immediately on a four-weeks honeymoon that will take them to Florida, New York, and perhaps even into Canada, where Mr. Dutra's sister, Miss Evelyn Dutra, is vacationing following her discharge, June 27, from the WAVES, in which she served as a lieutenant. The newlyweds will be joined by Miss Dutra either in Canada or at the home of relatives in New York, and return with her to California, where Miss Dutra will resume her school-teaching career in Los Banos, having taught there for nine years prior to the war.

The honeymooners, and the ex-WAVE lieutenant will be greeted in Centerville, upon their arrival here, by a big welcome-home dinner, even now being planned by Mrs. Dutra, their mother.

This is the same Dutra family, incidentally, which has been in the news before, mainly because five sons and one daughter were in the service. The other boys are Clarence, in the Navy overseas for two years; Edward, in the Army in the Aleutians and Attu for 18 months; Gilbert, with the Navy at Okinawa; and Robert, in the Army. Miss Dutra was with the WAVES for over three years. Gerald was in the Merchant Marine for four years, and has recently been employed at Pacific States Steel. He will return there at the conclusion of his honeymoon.

Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bendel of Niles have returned home after a vacation that took them to several of California's more popular summer resorts, including Yosemite, Tahoe, and Tuolumne Meadows.

Reno Wedding for Irvington Pair

It was a Reno wedding for the former Terry Krueger of Irvington and Joe Burnsed, also of Irvington. The couple were married at the First Baptist Church in Reno on July 4.

Standing up with the couple was the groom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Roberts of Port Chicago.

The bride was attired in a navy blue suit, with white accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

After a four-day honeymoon, the newlyweds returned to Irvington to make their home. The new Mrs. Burnsed is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Krueger. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Burnsed, and is presently employed with a contracting firm in San Jose.

Niles Family On Motor Trip

To a lot of us stay-at-homes, an itinerary of the trip which Mrs. Fern Mitte, son Morrison Green, and grandson Everett, completed this week is just plain torture to hear about.

From Yosemite they went to Tuolumne Meadows, then over Tioga Pass into Carson City, back by way of Lake Tahoe and around Mount Lassen to Shasta Dam, and then home again.

All kinds of weather — from bright sunshine to travelling along snow-banked mountain roads — was encountered by the party, and many of the more picturesque scenes were recorded on movie film by them.

New Position

Miss Lorraine Santana started her new position in the office of the New Colma Mill in Decoto last Monday. Miss Maxine Mau, who started at the Mill a couple of weeks ago, is one of Miss Santana's co-workers.

July 28 is Set as Wedding Date

Miss Dolores Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe D. Lewis of Centerville, has set July 28 as the date when she will exchange nuptial vows with Donald Lemos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Lemos. The couple will be married at a nuptial mass at Holy Ghost Church at 11:30.

Both young people are graduates of Washington Union High school. Miss Lewis, who has been the honoree in a round of entertaining recently, is presently employed at the Centerville Electric and Pump Company. The bridegroom-elect is an employee of A. S. Lewis.

Irvington Wives to Vacation in L. A.

Two Irvington women, Mrs. Wayne Day and Mrs. N. Rose, are going to Los Angeles Monday for a week's vacation.

This is to be a "ladies only" trip with husbands of both women remaining at home.

Included in the plans of the two ladies is a trip to Catalina Island and an evening at Earl Carroll's Theater Restaurant.

Also, they will stop for a day in Hanford to visit with Dr. de Campos, a relative of Mrs. Day.

They will make the trip by automobile.

Visitors Return to

Home in Lansing

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson (Thelma Lemos) have returned to their home in Lansing, Mich., after a ten-day visit with Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Lemos of Creek Road. Accompanying the young Wilsons was Mr. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Frank Wilson, also of Lansing. The visitors were amazed at the large supply of meat in this locality, inasmuch as the supply in Michigan is limited to not much more than a little ham and bacon—with practically no beef at all.

Newark Boy Flies to Mexico

Salvador P. Guerrero and his 14-year-old son, Salvador Jr., left by United Airlines at 5 p.m. Tuesday from the San Francisco Airport for Los Angeles, where, four hours later, Salvador Jr. made connections with the American Airlines to Mexico City, to spend the summer vacation with his aunt

Returns to Annapolis

Roland Bendel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bendel of Niles, returned to Annapolis via air on July 3 to join his ship, the USS North Dakota. He had spent a month's leave at his home here.

The queen of Newark's Holy Ghost Festival was Miss Mary Correia, who had as her assistants Victoria Menezes and Lillian Freitas.

Mrs. Sarah Crane resumed duties of carrying the mail from Niles to Centerville. A. L. Juhl was formerly the mail carrier.

Mrs. J. E. Thane and son, Bert, returned from a trip to Alaska.

HUNDREDS of thousands of farmers and their sons have found farming more interesting and more profitable since International Harvester announced the Farmall System of Farming over 17 years ago. Today they boast, "I Own a Farmall!"

And today, more than ever, the Farmall System is the safe, common-sense choice. It's sound and modern—no experimenting with untried principles. Here's efficient, low-cost power from an overhead valve engine that is the envy of the industry.

We'd like you to go over these leaders in the tractor field, if you haven't seen or driven one lately. One of these sizes—small A and B, AV for growers who need high clearance, middle-size H, and the big M—will be just right for your acreage and conditions.

FISHERMEN TELL DIFFERENT TALES

You've heard it said that certain stories should be taken with a grain of salt. Well, here's one you'd better take with a whole barrel of salt. Last Sunday Charlie Neves and his wife, Maudie, of Decoto, went fishing at Santa Cruz and if we are allowed to believe what we've been told, they caught forty fish!

As a sequel to that fantasy, also last Sunday, Tony Amaral, Joe Martin and Walt Menez went deep sea fishing off Santa Cruz. The box score was as follows: 3 fish caught by Menez; 0 fish caught by Amaral; and 1 case of seasickness caught by Martin.

Joe Rose of Central Chevrolet just returned this week from a vacation at Big Bear Lake in the San Bernardino Mountains.

Mrs. Rose Gaspard of Alvarado left this week for a short vacation in Santa Cruz.

MISSION SAN JOSE

at their home next week to spend a vacation.

Le Roy Costa, Sam Pereira and Leo Rogers, all employees of the P.G. & E. at Arbuttle, are spending a week here in the Mission at their various homes.

Little Becky Jean Overacker, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Overacker Jr., is up and around following a recent tonsilectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Millard and son, Andy, and daughter, Nadine, are spending a much needed vacation in Cisco, Calif. Mrs. Millard, away from her teaching duties at the Mission school and Millard away from his recent farming activities, hope to enjoy the rest. Prunes are the main crop on the Sloan place which he purchased this spring.

Friends and neighbors of two of our families will be glad to hear a bit of news from way over in Manila, P. I. Sgt. Richard Witherly, U.S. Air Corps, son of Mrs. Cassie Witherly, formerly of the Mission, now of San Francisco, met Pfc. Jack Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Niles, former Mission residents. Turner is also an air corps man. Dick Witherly is playing with the Army Band six nights a week in Manila and at club dances for the officers. Of course he, like all the rest, wants to get home as quickly as possible. Deck Witherly, brother and a vet, is in the real estate business at Rio Nido, Russian River.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Starr and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore and family, and Mrs. Margaret Moore McClure, all of Piedmont, have all moved to their ranches here on Mission Peak to spend the summer. And incidentally, Lt. Stuart McClure will arrive in a very few days from Europe and will come into town driving a jeep which he purchased over there and has brought it home by boat. It will be just the thing to climb those mountain roads.

Father Curran of Oakland is now at the Dominican Convent during the summer school classes. He will remain till Father Bourque returns from Canada.

Tom and Ruth Santos and daughter Diane, left Sunday morning for a week's vacation at Sacramento with Mr. and Mrs. Harley. Then to Placerville for a day with Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Kamp and daughter, Vicki (the former Elaine Justus), on the American River to fish and visit Great Grandfather Justus at his summer cabin on the river, then to Tahoe and home.

MRS. OVERACKER COMPLETES PROJECT

MINIATURE HOME ON DISPLAY SATURDAY

It isn't only adults that indulge in reverie, planning and scheming for that dream house they'll have in that distant "some day." The small fry, too—more particularly little girls (we can hardly imagine little boys doing it)—think of the "dream house" they'll own some day. For what little girl, 10 years old or under, hasn't wanted to own a doll house, in which to house her myriad possessions—dolls, doll furniture, and knick-knacks?

The answer to any little girl's dream is that very charming and exquisitely-fashioned doll house just completed by Mrs. Edna Overacker of Niles. Those who have seen the miniature Southern colonial home, with its contents of cunning hand-made chairs, tables, and beds, know that Mrs. Overacker has really turned out a work of art, a "thing of beauty" which would be a "joy forever" to some little girl.

Mrs. Overacker has given the doll house in its entirety—including all the delightful furnishings—to the Toyon Branch of the Children's Hospital of the Eastbay. The Toyon Branch, in turn, will put the house on display (this Saturday) at the International Kitchen, to be sold sometime in the future. Proceeds of the sale of the little house will go to the Children's Hospital.

Assisting Mrs. Overacker in the actual construction of the house—built to scale—was Joe Svoboda of Niles. He also built the really beautiful hand-carved staircase that leads upstairs to the tiny bedrooms. Mrs. Overacker, herself, however, must be given credit for the fashioning of the exquisite, ladder-back, rush-bottom chairs and the drop-leaf table in the dining-room. Oh yes! If you don't go into ecstasy over the corner cupboard, also built by Mrs. Overacker, then you're no true female at heart! Even men will take side-long looks of admiration at this dainty cupboard, and probably se-

Jean's party were: Dickie Silva, Cathy and Donnie Crisman, Marilyn and Dorothy Rodrigues, Rodney and Robert Albert, Ellard Harvey, Betty Jean Silva, Gail and Gordon Stefans, Elaine Souza, Jeanette Santos, Patricia Rapheal, Joanne Reis, and Nadine and Marlene Fernandez. On a beautifully decorated cake table, cake, cookies, ice cream and soda was served to the hostess and her little guests of the evening.

Following the refreshments, Carol Jean really had a wonderful time opening all her lovely gifts. Rosemarie Amaral was not able to attend but her gift was opened with the rest. To finished the evening, games were played.

Mothers present at the party were: Mrs. Clarence Silva, Mrs. Tom Souza, Mrs. Tony Souza, Mrs. Frank Albert, Mrs. Phyllis Crisman, and Mrs. George Rodrigues.

HOW CHEAP IS ELECTRIC IRRIGATION PUMPING?

A recent survey of crop-costs emphasizes the cheapness of electricity compared with all other expenses of crop production cost.

The following table shows how few pennies are used for electric irrigation pumping out of each dollar in total crop production cost.

As an example, for each dollar spent in raising almonds, less than 2 1/2 cents went for electricity.

Almonds	2.4 cents
Oranges	1.9 cents
Grapes (Raisin)	2.7 cents
Carrots (For Dehydration)	2.6 cents
Potatoes	5.1 cents
Peas	1.1 cents
Barley	4.0 cents
Cotton	6.0 cents

Electricity for pumping is cheap in Northern California. It is efficient, dependable and one crop-cost that has not increased in price.
